TOGETHER

Part 4: Living Together

1 Samuel 14

This week we will see that right relationships are the key to the fulfillment of God's dream for our lives. We will examine Saul's son Jonathan and his victory over the entire Philistine army with only his armor bearer at his side. We will see that God can use the strength of relationships to do the impossible.

OUR CLOSEST RELATIONSHIPS NEED TO BE MARKED BY 5 CHARACTERISTICS:

1. They will challenge your _____
2. They stretch you _____
3. They support you _____
4. They will help you think _____
5. They will prepare you _____

Consider and Discuss

- Talk about a time when God used a positive relationship in your life to help you overcome a challenge you were facing. Share how they supported you in that time. What did you learn about the value of relationships through that experience?
- Pastor Roy shared 5 characteristics we need to see in our closest relationships. Share which of these is most evident in your current relationships and how that has made a difference in your life.
- Discuss the quote Pastor Roy used, "Insulation is not Isolation" and share how the idea of insulation affects how you share your dreams with
